

PRESS RELEASE

20 something (TX: Sunday 12 June @ 1.30pm)

It's young, it's fresh, it's vibrant and it's fun! 20something is here to funk up yet another weekend with the latest news in music and in movies every Sunday at 1.30pm - and it's free, only on e.

Want to do the funky chicken? Rather not! Because funk is in the house in the form of funk band sensation 'Undersound' who swing by the studio to tell us more about their latest CD release, their upcoming UK tour and much more.

We hook-up with swimming sensation and Olympic Gold Medallist Natalie du Toit, to find out what she's been up to, how she copes with a demanding sport career and her life as a paraplegic.

This week we preview the film "Layer Cake" from the makers of "Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels" and "Snatch". The film is based upon JJ Connelly's novel of the same title and is about a successful cocaine dealer XXXX (Daniel Craig) who has earned a respected place among Britain's Mafia elite. While planning an early retirement from the business, XXXX is forced to rethink his plans as a love interest called Tammy and an international drug-ring, threaten to draw him back into the 'cake mix'.

We wrap-up the show with Evanescence, as they sing us out with their massive single 'My Immortal'.
