

Press Release

PRESS RELEASE

20something is your youth guide to everything youth related!

Sunday, 09 Jul and 16 Jul @ 1.30pm

Looking for a career, being fashion conscious, into movies and music? These are all things that a lot of 20something's are interested in. As usual e.tv's youth magazine 20something is at the helm of what the youth wants and this is evident in the following two week's line-up. So liven up your Sunday afternoon's entertainment by tuning in as Namhla Ndlovu and Shashi Naidoo host this popular programme.

TX: 09th July 2006 at 1:30

Looking for a career in eventing? Then look no further than this week's episode as we speak to the two young and dynamic co-owners of NeoCell Events, Thembi Ndimande and Neo Seale. Taking a leap and starting a business in 2003, the highlight of this duo's business has been launching the Youth in Business Summit Expo in June 2006. They are in studio to talk about what inspires them, and their passion for entrepreneurship.

SA Fashion week is fast approaching and everyone is looking for the right look. We do our bit by giving you a few tips and who better guide us through that than up-and-coming fashion superstar David Tlale. David Tlale is a homegrown label that stands out from the crowds and challenges the clichés and the predictable. His designs for women are bold and young and elegant. David is undoubtedly one of Mzansi's most interesting clothing labels.

We check out "Superman Returns" in this week's movie preview. Born on a planet which has long since died, Clark Kent has been raised by adoptive parents in Kansas. Under Earth's sun, he can do two things humans can only dream of, but to co-exist with them he must live a dual life as mild, unassuming Clark Kent, secretly transforming into the Man of Steel when the world cries out for him. But now, the world's crises have gone unheeded for five long years since Superman's mysterious disappearance. Starring Brandon Routh, Kevin Spacey, and Kate Bosworth.

We play out with Jay Z and Linkin Park who bring us their daring collabo 'Encore' merging Hip-Hop and Rock elements into one.

TX: 16th July 2006 at 1:30

We chat to Abdull Khalid, one of the lead actors of the movie "United 93" who is in the country to promote the movie. Shashi got a chance to chat Khalid about the man behind the actor and the movie. The Scottish born Khalid grew up in London where he was raised by his Egyptian parents. Khalid's screen credits include Spooks and Detached.

Latest Kwaito sensation Slice, visits us to talk about his passion for music and to share some of his experience. Hailing from the mean streets of Zola, Slice is signed by Ghetto Ruff and his single is on the "Tsotsi" soundtrack.

We preview the movie "United 93" a drama that tells the story of the passengers and crew, their families on the ground and the flight controllers who watched in dawning horror as United Airlines Flight 93 became the fourth hijacked plane on September 11, 2001. The movie recreates the doomed trip in actual time, from takeoff to hijacking to the realization by those onboard that their plane was part of a coordinated attack unfolding on the ground beneath them.

Slice plays us out with a live performance.

For photos of Namhla and Shashi, please contact:

Thabo Makeleni

e.tv Publicity Writer

Tel: 011 537 9399

Email: thabo.makeleni@etv.co.za