20something: Tasting the township lifestyle TX: Sunday February 01

South Africa's biggest township, Soweto has been declared the heart and soul of South Africa. Kyle and Shashi hit the colorful vibrant township lifestyle. There are, of course, plenty of venues that offer a relaxed atmosphere, pleasant music and a good view of the historically rich Vilakazi Street in Orlando West, which boasts a string of top restaurants and highly rated B&Bs.

Also this week on 20something:

- Don't follow me I am married! We chat to Rhythm City actress and singer Pam Andrews about her first year as a mother.
- One of the upcoming lights in the local fashion industry, designer, Tshepo Modiba, tells 20something about his labors.
- The day ends at Vilakazi street, Nambithas Restaurant, Kyle and Sashi enjoy some affordable, tasty Soweto food.
- We play out with Fire on the mountain by Nigerian born Afro Soul musician, Asa.

20something every Sunday after the eleven o'clock movie.
