

Press Release

20SOMETHING: Sunday 19 June @ 1.30pm

As we celebrate the spirit of the Youth this week let the best youth magazine keep you informed with the most happening news in music and in movies. They say knowledge is power so allow Namhla Ndlovu and Khethiwe Kunene dish you up with the latest on 20something every Sunday @ 1.30pm - free on e!

On the 20something couch this week we have the Parlotones, one of South Africa's best rock bands that have been on the scene since the late 90s. They have an acerbic wit and are also renowned for their stage performances. They are in studio to chat about their new album, and also tell us more about who they are and how they came to be one of SA's leading bands.

Mzansi celebrated Youth Day on June 16th this year - as in every year - and so we thought we'd get a few of South Africa's leading bands - Arno Carstens, Tumi and the Volume, Morafe, Mzekezeke, and a host of other musicians - to give their message to the youth.

The movie preview of the week is the highly anticipated spy flick "Mr. & Mrs. Smith" - starring Hollywood's latest craze and gorgeous couple Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie. Mr. & Mrs. Smith seem like a normal ordinary married couple, what they don't know however, is that they are both assassins... And now their separate lives are about to collide when each finds out their next target is actually their own spouse.

The rumour mill has it that Paris Hilton has declared a crush on 50 Cent! And Brad Pitt is making a move into architecture ...watch this pace for more hot goss!

The music video request of the week comes from our own King of hip-hop Mr Selwyn with "Shake".
