20something: Painting Soweto red!

TX: Sunday February 8

Still in Soweto, Kyle and Sashi Naidoo are the epitome of ghetto fabulous, catch them paint the township red. This Sunday, ambience is the main attraction, they are coming to you from historically rich Meadowlands' Sedibeng Pub and Restaurant. Famous for electrifying live music shows, the venue is any jazz music lover's dream hangout spot.

Also on 20something this week:

- One of the members of SA hip hop group, Jozi, Da Les is doing his solo thing and he is doing a good job at it. He tells us about his solo album titled Fresh2Def. Check out his thrilling music video.
- Kyle takes a peak at our three exclusive DVDs, ranging from romantic comedy to fiction.
- Sashi keeps the party mode alive with one of the hottest DJ's in the house music industry, DJ Marshall. We get up close and personal with him.
- 20something was there to capture the third annual Audi Fashion Week. Aside from showcasing some of the innovative high quality local designers, the event raised the bar this time around by bringing some of the edgier, daring designs from up and coming designers.
- We play out with Beggin' by MadCon.

20something every Sunday after the eleven o'clock movie.
