e Press Release: 3rd Degree – Chuene Update

TX: Tuesday 15 March 2011 at 9.30PM

This week, a look at the whole sorry saga of Leonard Chuene and Caster Semenya.

In September 2009, 3rd Degree was one of the first to expose former Athletics SA boss, Leonard Chuene's lies. He lied when he claimed not to know about athlete Caster Semenya's gender tests - and their outcome.

Instead he let her run in at the World Athletics championships in 2009 in Berlin. She won, but her glory was short lived, as speculation mounted over her gender.

Months later, Chuene was suspended as president of ASA, and an investigation launched into the affairs of ASA.

The report of the investigation was released last month, charging Chuene with what 3rd Degree had proven already, that he grossly mishandled the Caster controversy. Other charges include poor corporate governance, misappropriation of funds and tax evasion.

Chuene has been subsequently fired.
