3rd Degree: Eldo's Burning TX: Tuesday 20 July at 9.30PM

When two dead bodies were carried out of Ou Huis, a notorious drug den in Eldorado Park, the community said enough is enough. And they torched the house. They'd on more than one occasion pointed out the place to local cops, but nothing ever came of it. They say police turn a blind eye to drug dealing - even protect the drug lords.

To see if there was any truth in these claims, 3rd Degree convinced a drug pusher to talk about the trade. He confessed that he actually sells drugs to one particular cop. And confirmed that his boss, a drug kingpin, buys the silence of certain rotten policemen.
