e Press Release: 3rd Degree – Danville

In a white township in Pretoria west, teenagers celebrate their friend's 18th birthday one Saturday night. A day later, laughter turns to tragedy, when one of the partygoers is found dead in the street, after she allegedly jumped from a speeding bakkie to get away from a man who'd kidnapped her. Her friend claims she was raped by the same man.

But the story simply doesn't add up. Is there a cover-up? Is someone being protected?

3rd Degree investigates.
