America's Next Top Model 5: Double Episodes

Come back glamour, all is forgiven. It's time for a double whammy. One of e.tv's sexiest programmes, America's Next Top Model will be screening back-to-back episodes as of Tuesday 16 December from 8pm to 9pm and then from 9pm to 10pm. Double trouble.

This will continue in the New Year on 6th January and the grand finale will be aired the following week on 13th January 2009. Stay tuned to e.tv on Tuesdays to find out how the season concludes.

The Girl Who Steps On The Pretty Flower

16 December at 8pm

Episode 8

Never-before-seen footage from the first eight weeks of the show which includes an inside look at some surprising and hilarious moments, such as the girls going wild when a bird gets loose in the house. This episode also features the models getting upset and confronting Jayla about her negative and hurtful comments towards others. Later, Nicole and Ebony secretly mock Jayla and Cassandra, and Coryn turns into a prankster on the other models. Meanwhile, Lisa shows her unusual way of making sure she gets exercise.

The Girl Whose Boyfriend Is Cheating On Her

16 December at 9pm

Episode 9

Winner of the third season, Eva Pigford invites the models to one of her photo shoots and shares some advice on surviving the competition. The contestants are given an entourage of make-up personal and stylists to make them look good. The task is to impress record executive, Benny Medina in an interview. The winner will make a guest appearance on the drama, Veronica Mars. Once all the fun and games are over, the girls have to keep their composure in a photo shoot with MTV's Wildboyz. One of the models is so determined to upstage their antics she urinates in a nappy. Tyra Banks makes a shocking announcement during elimination.

The Girl Who Talks Behind Everyone's Back

6 January at 8pm

Episode 10

Big Ben here they come. The competition has reached a whole new level of intensity after last week's shocking no elimination. All six girls are packed and ready for their international trip to the cosmopolitan city of London. But first, they have to pose for their passport pictures and look like top models in them. The winner and a friend can look forward to date with two sophisticated English gentlemen. The photo shoot this week is a risqué one as the models all find themselves inside a phone booth. The aim is to stand out, look sexy in nothing but a pantie and a piece of newspaper and most importantly outshine the rest of the competitors. Behind the lens, two modelettes confront another model after overhearing her gossip about them.

The Girl Who Retaliates

6 January at 9pm

Episode 11

Miss J. Alexander schools the models in the art of standing absolutely still as they pose as statues in a park. Some of the competitors are distracted from the task when pigeons come to perch on top of them. The winner of the challenge gets to go on a shopping spree. Later, one contestant finds her granola bars have been stolen and immediately assumes who the suspect is and decides to get even. She empties the person's Red Bull down the drain. At elimination the judges are made aware of her rash actions and she finds herself in the bottom two. The models' photo shoot involves posing as modern interpretations of classical art.

The Girl Who Takes A Pill
13 January at 8pm
Episode 12

The final four have to dress to impress when they are sent on go-sees in London and each model is given a theme. The winner gets extra frames during their upcoming photo shoot. The contestants are then divided into groups of two and the two girls who had a confrontation last week make peace. Panel judge and noted Fashion Photographer, Nigel Barker introduces the modelettes to his mother, a former Miss Sri Lanka. Inspired by the cultural knowledge, the models are instructed to stand out in a Bollywood photo shoot. One contestant makes a mistake by accepting a pill from another contestant by ends up feeling worse after taking it.

The Girl On The Cover
13 January at 9pm
Episode 13

The final three go head to head in a CoverGirl commercial and a photo shoot. One contestant is eliminated afterwards and the final two participate in a shoot with Tyra Banks photographed by top fashion photographer, Gille Bensimon. The final runway challenge gets underway with former winners, Eva Pigford and Naima Mora joining the last two. Who is strutting into the title of America's Next Top Model?
