

PRESS RELEASE

America's Next Top Model 6: The Girl Who Has A Temper TX: Monday 18 May at 9pm

This week the remaining eight contestants learn the art of twirling, coached by two professionals the Aswirl twins. Putting this new technique to the test, the models have to participate in a church fashion show. The winner will twirl away with a diamond ring worth twenty-five thousand dollars.

Back at the house one girl, who is usually soft spoken and docile lashes out at a fellow contestant for hogging the phone all the time.

The competitors will have to pull out all their best dancing moves in a photo shoot modelling shoes while performing an urban street dance called krumping. One of the models impresses Jay Manuel for the first time in the competition.

Who is strutting to the beat of the music this week?
