America's Next Top Model 5: The Girl Who Gets A Boob Job

TX: Tuesday 11 November at 9pm

The claws are coming out as the wannabes have to turn on each other. This week the task is to point out the worst physical features in one another.

One girl in particular is taking this as an opportunity to insult a fellow model and an argument ensues. Will they get physical?

The Queen of critique and former judge, Janice Dickson makes a welcome return as a photographer. She brings her brutally honest opinions to the models' photo shoot and leaves one modelette in tears.

The shoot entails taking plastic surgery to the extreme with the help of makeup and gimmicks. The contestants receive one of the following procedures: cheek implant, butt implant, lip implant, Botox, breast reduction, breast implant and a face lift.

Who will embody their transformation the most? Find out Tuesday at 9pm.
