This Week on 3rd Degree
Tuesday 7 March @ 8pm

Border Wars

3rd Degree looks at Khutsong, a township teetering dangerously close to the edge of anarchy. West of Johannesburg, Khutsong has become the unwilling victim of the latest boundary demarcation policy.

Residents threatened to disrupt this week's local elections unless they could remain part of Gauteng and not be incorporated into North West province, which they say offers inferior services.

Burning tyres; teachers jailed and students running amok were just some of the latest outbursts of anger. This violence made it impossible for electioneering to take place as top ANC MPs were chased out of the area.

We tell the story from when it first broke late last year, with shocking visuals of rioting and violence. 3rd Degree gives you the lowdown. 3rd Degree, Tuesday 7 March @ 8pm, only on e!
