Tx: Saturday 18 September at 6.05PM

This week, e.tv and POPSTARS takes a thorough look at the exciting Durban call-backs as well as the Cape Town auditions in the next POPSTARS episode which airs on 18 September at 6.05PM.

The Durban second round of call-backs entertains as this round includes nerve-wrecking group singing where aspiring POPSTARS need to show how well they work in a group. Davyn Fourie, a hopeful from Durban takes the spotlight and lends a helping hand to all his auditioning friends. He grabs his guitar and thoroughly prepares his friends for their nail-biting POPSTARS auditions, but when he faces the judges himself, does he blow them away or squander his chance at superstardom?

The Cape Town POPSTARS auditions held on 28 and 29 August then takes centre stage and we take a special look-back at twin contestants, Clinton and Clement Bastiaan. The inseparable pair supported each other 100% during auditions, but as fate would have it, one makes it to call-backs, and one doesn't.

POPSTARS then gets to know Natasha Meister, the South African who grew up in Canada, but who has an even more interesting heritage.

Don't forget POPSTARS Extra, the weekly highlights package that takes a look at all the behind-the-scenes POPSTARS footage which airs on Wednesdays at 8PM from 15 September 2010.

The exhilarating POPSTARS story continues only on e.tv, the new home of POPSTARS on 18 September at 6.05PM.
