24 September at 12.35pm

We review the latest gadgets with Anthony Draper

We chat to clothing label "Uhuru" owners about conscious fashion. Their clothing can be described as hip-hop meet afro-centric and has unique designs and art methods only attributed to their label. The designers are in studio to chat about their clothing line, and they also chat to us about how easy or difficult it was for them to open and operate their label. We also get to look at what the brand offers.

We preview the movie "The Tiger & The Snow". Italian poet Attilio de Giovanni (Roberto Benigni) is divorced and has two teenage daughters, but is a talkative dreamer who is in love with a beautiful woman named Vittoria (Nicoletta Braschi). When Attilio decides to head to Baghdad, one of his closest friends Fuad (Jean Reno), who is a great Iraqi poet, goes with him. But when war breaks out in Baghdad because of the American-led invasion, Vittoria gets seriously wounded and all Attilio can think of is trying to save her life.

We play out with Zola's 'Uzubuye'.

1 October at 1.30pm

We chat to Sizwe Dlomo about the upcoming MTV VJ Search. Sizwe also chats about his experiences as the first winner of the nationwide search; what is going to be different this time around; where the auditions are going to be held; etc. We also find out how his life changed since winning the MTV base VJ search.

We chat to dancer Hlengiwe Lushaba. The 24 year old dancer, choreographer, singer & actor discovered her passion for dance while she was in primary school. She's also acted in a number of theatre productions and a few television shows. She recently choreographed 'Is this Africa put across on the appropriate woman?' which was a finalist of the African Indian Chorography competition in April. She's won the 2006 Standard Bank young Artist award.

We preview the movie "Little Miss Sunshine". The Hoover family treks from Albuquerque to the Little Miss Sunshine pageant in Redondo Beach, California, to fulfil the deepest wishes of 7-year-old Olive, an ordinary little girl with big dreams. Along the way the family must deal with crushed dreams, heartbreaks, and a broken-down VW bus, leading up to the surreal Little Miss Sunshine competition itself. On their travels through this bizarre landscape, the Hoovers learn to trust and support each other along the path of life, no matter what the challenge.

We play out with Muttafix "Cool The Place Down"
