

Press Release

Fear Factor International WWE Special Monday 19 June @ 8.00pm

It was a breezy, chilly day as six of the WWE's biggest stars arrived for their first Fear Factor stunt.

Molly Holly, Test, Mat Hardy, Jeff Hardy, Lita and Jacqueline stood at the end of a long, concrete pier as a helicopter dangling a ladder flew by. Host Joe Grogan explained that each of them would hang from the bottom rung of that ladder and as the helicopter spun above the cold Pacific Ocean, they would have to climb up and into the "bird." The four players with the best times would advance.

Day two will find the remaining competitors descending into a dimly lit cantina. With Joe waiting with the Blender of Fear.

A simple game of craps is the key to this stunt. Each player will roll three dice, labeled with ingredients to be included in a Fear Factor protein shake. Using a base mixture of pig brains, additional ingredients included pig intestine, durian (a pungent fruit), animal fat, rooster testes, cow eyes, veal brain, spleen, cod liver oil, bile and fish sauce. Suddenly our muscle-bound wrestlers wished they were in a head lock with ten massive men instead

For all the competitors left on final day, they will face six telephone poles positioned in a line by height. Attached to the shortest pole (which still towered into the sky) will be three flags. The object is to move the flags, one at a time, from the shortest pole to the highest pole. The person with the best time would win. And if that wasn't bad enough they're going to make it rain on them!

Who will be the WWE Fear Factor champion?

Jeff and Matt Hardy: Brothers in and out of the ring, these two high flying dynamos have no fear. And their breathtaking maneuvers in the ring are testament to that. These will be two really tough guys to beat when it comes down to nerves of steel.

Test: He's a ladies man, but don't let the prettiness fool you, he's ruthless. And many a wrestler has rued the day he messed with Test.

Jacqueline: A former WWE Women's champion. This lady is built for competing. She hates to lose and brings power that the other women won't be able to compete with.

Lita: Once beloved by the fans for her extreme ways, Lita is now one of the most despised Divas in WWE. Aligned with Edge since May 2005, Lita no longer cares what the fans think of her, standing by the Rated R Superstar no matter what derogatory chants the fans send in her direction

Molly Holly: Don't let the blonde hair fool you. This is a calculating; take it all kind of girl. She comes from a wrestling family and loves the competition.
