

PRESS RELEASE

Forgive & Forget: Jerome

TX: Tuesday, 4 March at 8.30pm

Would you trust a guy that has been to jail? Do you believe in giving others a second chance? These are some of the questions you would need to ask yourself before watching Tuesday's episode of the emotionally charged Forgive & Forget. People are always talking about giving people second chances, but that is easier said than done. On Forgive & Forget this week we meet a man who has been released from jail and is trying to integrate himself back into society.

Meet Jerome Cupido, a 39yr old man from Atlantis who was born in a prison. Born to an alcoholic mother and an emotionally distant father, Jerome had to live on the streets from an early age and as a result, his behaviour was one of misconduct then delinquency then crime. After serving a few jail sentences, Jerome vowed that he would clean up his act, and looked for a job.

Mr Witkowsky was the first employer to look beyond Jerome's criminal record and actually see the potential that Jerome has. He gave him a job in his computer business. But Jerome struggled to escape his past and he stole from the only man who had more faith in him than his own family.

Now, six years later, Jerome has solicited the help of Forgive & Forget as he would like to apologise to Mr Witkowsky for betraying his trust. Will Mr Witkowsky be willing to forgive the man who betrayed his trust? Watch as Doris Msibi walks with these two men in their quest in Forgive & Forget this Tuesday at 8.30pm, free only on e.
