Forgive & Forget: You're the one

TX: Tuesday 27 May, at 8pm

In this week's episode of Forgive & Forget, Doris meets a man whose heart longs to be with the woman he left for someone else. On discovering that the grass isn't always greener on the other side – coupled with the fact that his new relationship ended up in a failed marriage – he's now come to Forgive & Forget to see if he can work things out with his former love.

But could a chance at love be too late as Zakes wants to ask his girlfriend's forgiveness and would like a second chance to rekindle that fire that they shared together or has she found someone else to replace him?
