Fresh Living TV - Bachelor Pad Dad TX: Monday 13 September at 5.30PM

Catch the Fresh Living TV make-over team in action this Monday when they help a recently divorced father of three transform his new bachelor pad into "home sweet home" on e.tv on 13 September at 5.30PM.

Host Ayanda Tini and her team of experts join Scott at his semi detached cottage, which, after a year of living in, has failed to become a place he can call home. His kids have to sleep on a fold out couch when they visit, and he's too embarrassed to entertain his friends at home. Watch as Ayanda and her team give his cottage - and his mojo - a makeover; as well as some fail-proof cooking tips and general advice on how to stand on his own two feet and flourish!

Says Peter Gird, executive producer at 2point0 Productions "In every episode, we're looking for simple, affordable solutions to create a sustainable environment for viewers. The team's goal is to uplift Scott and give him some more zest and energy for life. Fresh Living TV tugs at the heart-strings and I recommend viewers have loads of tissues handy. Fresh Living TV simply can't be missed!"
