

Press Release

Gear-up for some heck of a lot of fun, with 20something Sunday, 13 August at 1.20pm and 20 August at 1.30pm

In the next two weeks 20something reminisces about the life and times of a great South African artist, checks out what's new on the gadget's market, shows how to get in the fashion industry and possibly make billions by breaking all the traditional business rules! Loaded? That's just e.tv's Sunday lunchtime magazine show with your hosts Namhla Ndlovu and Shashi Naidoo.

TX: 13 August 2006 at 1.20pm

We chat to Sello Sebotsane, the lead actor in the play "Guga Mzimba" – a musical based on the life of Gerard Sekoto at the height of his creative powers from 1947 after he arrived in France up until his death in 1993. The musical embraces and explores the spirit of Gerard Sekoto through his music and art, with additional compositions and book by Xoli Norman.

Our gadget's man Anthony Draper is back to let us know what's new in the world of technology. If you are a fan of fancy toys then be sure not to miss this exciting feature.

We review the movie "Confetti". This Mockumentary charts the journey of three couples as they battle it out to win a magazine competition of 'Most Original Wedding of the Year'. The talented cast includes Martin Freeman, Jessica Stevenson, Stephen Mangan, Felicity Montagu, Alison Steadman and Jimmy Carr. Well, may the best wedding win!

We play out with Corinne Bailey Rae's radio anthem "Put your records on".

TX: 20 August 2006 at 1.30pm

We chat to Jan Malan and Emily Jane about the seemingly glamorous world of modelling. If you're into strutting your stuff, then check out the show to find out what it takes to be a model, the different types of modelling (photographic, catwalk, commercials) and what the modelling scouts are looking for. Our studio guests are Jan and Emily. Jan is one of the producers of the Nokia Cape Town Fashion Week and of the Nokia Face of Africa model search. Emily is a modelling sensation and an experienced Fashion Week Model who has been in the industry for eight years.

Shashi Naidoo reviews Richard Branson's biography "Losing my Virginity". This book is the unusual, frequently outrageous autobiography of one of the great business geniuses of our time. Branson has written his own "rules" for success, creating a group of companies with a global presence. Losing My Virginity is the ultimate tale of personal and business survival from a man who combines the business prowess of Bill Gates and the promotional instincts of P.T. Barnum.

We review the movie "Murderball" about the lives of tough, highly competitive rugby players – paraplegic rugby players. Whether by car wreck, fist fight, gun shot, or rogue bacteria, these men were forced to live life sitting down. In their own version of the full-contact sport, they smash the hell out of each other in custom-made gladiator-like wheelchairs. And no, they don't wear helmets.

We play out with "Touch It" from Busta Rhymes featuring Hip-Hop royalty Missy, Mary J, and Rah Digga.
