

PRESS RELEASE

Get cultured, every Wednesday nights, with 20something!
TX: Wednesday 30 April, at 8pm

Tshwane has been dubbed the style Capital of South Africa, so, naturally 20something makes a turn to check out what the city offers. This week 20something chats to fellow e.tv family members, and Scandal actors Nthathi Moshesh and Sello Maake ka Ncube, performing, The Lion and the Jewel at the State Theatre.

Namhla and Kyle chat to young entrepreneurs at the Duncan Yard in Hatfield and then speak to Tanja Keevy and Alicia Malan about their scrumptious Deli and how they started their own business.

The Multi Racial Records team shows 20something a thing or two on how to spin discs on the 1s and 2s, and 20something gives you the lowdown about where it's happening with the city's gig guide...

This week's movie preview is the inspiring "88 minutes", starring Al Pacino. He stars as Dr. Jack Gramm who receives a death threat claiming that he has only 88 minutes to live. We play out with Leki's "Spread my wings". Catch 20something, every Wednesdays at 8pm, free on e.
