

Press Release

GO CRAZ-E THESE HOLIDAYS!

School's out, summer's here and Craz-e is what everybody needs to get this festive season...

...With a mixed goodie bag of December 2006 screen entertainment for kids, tweeners, teenagers – and for those of us who just never, ever, want to grow up.

Mondays to Thursdays you can (and must!) dance and sing along (we won't tell!) to Cool Catz at 2.35pm; watch cartoons at 3pm, trip on local magazines shows at 3.30pm - and grab a movie every Friday at 2.30pm.

Join the Sistahood, every Monday in December at 3.30pm, to find out how to make greeting cards, cocktails, and your own Christmas tree; what to do during the holidays; what NOT to buy for Christmas, and where celebs chill.

The girls will also tackle the topics of forgiveness, giving, what boys think (this will obviously be an extremely short insert); and, Do You know Where You Come From? (This is linked to celebs who have changed their names).

Meet personalities, Elana Afrika (this year, she's won just about every Best Dressed Award in town – and she's really nice, too); Yolanda Olckers, Theatre Afrikan's principal dancer; Yfm's afternoon drive show co-host, and actress, Dineo Ranaka, and Donnay Torr, editor of Beeld newspaper's youth supplement, JIP.

Enjoy the eye candi in the form of Elijah Wood, Marlon Wayans, British actor and bad, bad, boy Jude Law, and DJ Cleo.

Frenzy every Tuesday in December at 3.30pm: hang with Lotto and Scandal! man, Nimrod Nkosi, muzos Daz and Chingy (they have new CDs out), Yfm DJ Adil; e's That Sports Show host, Udo Carelse, funny man, Desmond Dube and ex-Craz-e presenters, Tyronne and Caitlin, who are back from a year's break in the UK.

There's movie previews of Santa Claus 3, Storm Breaker, Everyone's Hero, and Deck The Halls, and things get hectic when a vuvuzela blows and the studio presenters and guests have to do weird stuff like egg and spoon races, hoola hoop and sing Christmas carols. Other brilliant ideas: how to gift wrap another person - and bargain hunt for gifts.

Shiz Niz Wednesdays at 3.30pm: In October, the show aired a Battle of the MCs competition. Viewers had to vote for their favourite MC, and in December, we give the four winners an opportunity to co-host the show (with a whole posse of their friends in the audience) with a Shiz Niz presenter.

It's all about the video, babe, with Reverb Live on Thursdays at 3.30pm: In December, there's a music trivia quiz where two lucky viewers compete for a music hamper, the latest hot video releases, and studio guests, Josie Field, Wonderboom, Kelly Khumalo and Drenko.

Switch to e – and let the good times roll. Happy Holidays to everyone: Craz-e "Uzowuzwa umoya – You'll Feel The Spirit" - only on e.
