

PRESS RELEASE

INSIDE OUT - Social Entrepreneurs

TX: Saturday 14 November 2009 at 9:30AM

While the country is reeling from service delivery protests, Trevor Mulaudzi is crossing the globe to find solutions to South Africa's sanitation problems.

Margie Owen Smith, is an Ashoka fellow, who is passionate about the possibilities of Home Language Education in South African schools, while the Umuzi Photo Club makes learning fun, by teaching youngsters the art of photography, while at the same time creating social awareness about their home environments, communities and schools.

-Ends-