INSIDE OUT - Nelson Mandela's Leadership Principles Pt 2

TX: Saturday 25 July 2009 at 9:30AM

What is it that sets Nelson Mandela apart from other world leaders and what can we take from his teachings?

Dr. Frene Ginwala, the first speaker of a democratic South African parliament, shares some key moments from Madiba's political career which established him as an inspirational role model.

For her, one incident in particular stands out. Nelson Mandela defied then President F.W. de Klerk during a CODESA meeting and this, according to Ginwala, "changed the mood of the country".

"Many of today's leaders are almost immune to self-reflection" says Murphy Morobe, the CEO of Kagiso Media. Morobe first encountered Nelson Mandela's strong beliefs and introspection, as a prisoner on the infamous Robben Island. Morobe offers some sound advice as to how business leaders can put Mandela's wisdom into practice.

Madiba's experiences can also enable ordinary people to make a difference in their homes and communities. The CEO of the Nelson Mandela Foundation, Achmat Dangor, explains the importance of taking responsibility for one's decisions and actions.
