INSIDE OUT - Property market in South Africa

TX: Saturday 22 August at 9:30AM

It has proved to be a financially tumultuous time for most South Africans and almost all industries. The local property market is no different and is also suffering under the current economic climate.

What should home owners do if they are struggling to repay their bond payments? What are the pitfalls, potential buyers should be looking out for and what are the new requirements for bond applications?

Join anchor Pat Pillai for the Inside Out on the local property market, including some great tips for bargain buying and investment opportunities.
