

Press Release

Judge for Yourself Sunday 3 September at 6.30pm

It started with her stand at the world AIDS Conference in Toronto. Now we have a Health Minister who's been dubbed "Dr Beetroot" by the international media. This name-calling is nothing news.

Afrikaans newspapers have been calling her "Dr Garlic" for many years now. Now it has snowballed into a local "Fire Manto" campaign.

In this week's JUDGE FOR YOURSELF, Judge Dennis Davis looks at Government's AIDS policy: are they doing their job and is it in line with rights enshrined in our constitution?

Join the TAC and the Health Department for the AIDS debate. Guests are: Health Director-General Thami Mseleku, TAC's Zackie Achmat and NAPWA's (National Association of People Living with Aids) director, Nkululeko Nxesi.

Judge For Yourself with Judge Dennis Davis. This Sunday at 6.30pm, on e.tv
