Judge for Yourself: Unequal Land Ownership Sunday 9 April at 6.30pm

Ninety six percent of commercial farmland still remains in white hands as farmers and government play ping pong over prices. Aspirant black farmers say white farmers are willing to sell, but there's no funding. Government says farms are overpriced, and farmers say bureaucratic bottlenecks are to blame. Join Dennis Davis this week as he addresses one of Apartheid's worst legacies - unequal land ownership on Judge for Yourself with Dennis Davis. Sunday 9 April at 6.30pm on e.tv.
