Let's Fix It Tuesday 1 August at 8.30pm

Let's Fix It visits Beekersdal in Gauteng, south of Johannesburg. host Samm Marshall has his hands full when he meets 16 remarkable women called the Quoqanani sisters, who have dedicated themselves to assisting HIV positive patients by preparing nutritious meals for them and ensuring that they take their medication; all of this out the goodness of their hearts.

They also meet Bonggi Xaba, another brave young woman, who lost her mother and found out her HIV status at the same time. Her life is filled with darkness and depression. Samm makes it his mission to bring a smile to this brave soul.
