Let's Fix It Tuesday 18 July at 8.30pm

Tonight on Let's Fix It, presenter Samm Marshall meets Roshina Ajoodaderda, who lives in Lenasia, Johannesburg. Two years ago she lost her husband, who was the sole bread winner. She has five children, has no work experience and is unable to obtain a job. Yet, all this has not dampened her spirits. Let's Fix It takes on the challenge of transforming Roshina into an independent, self-sufficient woman, while at the same time developing the rest of her potential.
