Let's Fix It Tuesday 5 September at 8.30pm

Let's Fix It meets an altruistic young lady, Linda Matsolo from Cape Town. She is a Grade 12 learner, and realises that to make a difference in her community, she is going to have to start contributing in small ways. Samm Marshall, the host, makes her his special protégé.

The first fixes of many they tackle is Damon Hartzenberg, an 84-year-old resident of Athlone, Cape Town. Damon suffers from diabetes and is not able to walk. In addition, he is confined to his house like a prisoner. Linda and Samm help Damon to get out of his cage and give him a sense of freedom.

In the short time since its launch, the Let's Fix It team has assisted in empowering many disadvantaged people. Says Samm Marshall: "The show is a humbling experience and after reading all the many letters we receive, we have identified a number of common needs – bursaries, wheelchairs, electrical appliances, and many more.

Every week the Let's Fix It team tries to help as many people as possible. Indeed, in a world of unbridled greed and materialism, Let's Fix It is a breath of fresh air. On e.tv, Tuesday 5 September at 8.30pm.
