

PRESS RELEASE

Live Rock, 20something Style
TX: Wednesday 07 May, at 8pm

When Elvis Presley stepped in the limelight, he probably didn't think that rock music would be as big as it became. Rock music and culture has influenced many other genres, leading to many collaborations between various musicians to create beautiful music.

20something caters to all music lovers, but this week especially to rock lovers. Celebrity rock band, Prime Circle chats to 20soemthing about their success and up-coming shows. Namhla and Kyle interview Matt Slater, the owner of Back2Basix, where a lot local rock stars started their careers.

The international acclaimed musical production Chicago is in town with a sizzling all South African cast and to keep it interesting, check out how you can spice up your rock image with the latest rock bling.

This week's movie preview is "21", based on the book "Bring the House Down" a story of six M.I.T students who made away with millions in Las Vegas. The movie stars Kevin Spacey, Laurence Fishburne and Kate Bosworth.

The show ends with Prime Circle serenading us with their music.

20something, every Wednesday at 8pm, free on e.
