MEET THE CAST OF BACKSTAGE backstage! Every Wednesday at 6.30pm

If you have been following Ziggy's Tjooning In show which airs every Wednesday on Backstage, then you will know that e.tv has been giving away a prize a week to one lucky viewer. But now for the even more exciting part... All past and future winners will automatically be entered into a draw to win a further grand prize - a once in a lifetime behind-the-scenes ticket to meet the cast of Backstage backstage. Hollywood-style, baby! The winner will be flown to Johannesburg and picked up in a limousine from the airport, to be transported to a hotel for an all-inclusive luxury trip. If you're local (live around Johannesburg, we mean) then a limousine will collect you from your home.

The winner will get to spend one day on the Backstage set. See how the production of a major soapie works as actors are harried and hurried from makeup to wardrobe to set. Taste the pressure of fame as you watch the actors memorising their lines in the Green Room, before they go on set. Tour the Backstage studios and get an insider glimpse into the glamorous world of television. And be a star yourself for the day - yes, the winner will have a guest appearance on the show, before being taken out to dinner by Ziggy and other favourite Backstage stars. And afterwards, who knows what the future could hold for you?

The grand winner will be announced on February 1 2006, so keep watching your favourite daily youth drama and you could win a trip of a lifetime.
