

PRESS RELEASE

Nicky Greenwall goes to the 82nd Academy Awards

TX: Saturdays 6 and 13 March at 7.30PM

Rub shoulders with the stars when Nicky Greenwall travels to Los Angeles for one of Hollywood's most spectacular and prestigious events of the year – The 82nd Academy Awards. The Showbiz Report's coverage starts the night before the Academy Awards on Saturday 6 March at 7.30PM and continues on Saturday 13 March also at 7.30PM.

At this year's Oscars, Nicky will particularly pay attention to the two movies with a South African connection, namely District 9 and Invictus. The science-fiction thriller received nominees for best picture, best visual effects, best editing and best adapted screenplay. Invictus received two nominations - Morgan Freeman for best actor for his role as Nelson Mandela and Matt Damon in the best supporting actor category for his role as François Pienaar.

With an exclusive interview with District 9 star, Sharlto Copley, amongst other star-studded red carpet news, The Showbiz Report should not be missed. Book your diaries and secure your front seats now.

About Nicky Greenwall

Each week The Showbiz Report's executive producer and entertainment reporter, Nicky Greenwall, brings viewers the latest entertainment news from around the world and around the country. This will be Nicky's third time at the Academy Awards. To date she has conducted one-on-one interviews with some of the biggest names in showbiz, including Johnny Depp, Leonardo DiCaprio, Charlize Theron, Angelina Jolie, P Diddy, Sir Anthony Hopkins and Jim Carrey to name but a few.

For a high-res image, contact Melissa Fredericks, e.tv publicist on 021 481 4634, email melissa.fredericks@etv.co.za or go to www.nickygreenwall.co.za

END