

Press Release

Saturday Night's Main event Sunday 9 April @ 2pm

A name synonymous with great wrestling memories of the 80s and 90s, Saturday Night's Main Event make's a return to the airwaves this month, with a special airing here on e.tv on Sunday 9 April at 2pm for three hours of madness.

Saturday Night's Main Event will feature both Raw and Smackdown superstars, and even includes a huge cross promotional main event. In a "Wrestlemania Main Event" versus "Wrestlemania Main Event" match, bitter foes Triple H and WWE Champion John Cena will be forced to team up and face Smackdown stars Randy Orton, Rey Mysterion and World Heavyweight Champion Kurt Angle.

Each team has their own agenda heading towards Wrestlemania, as "The King of Kings" Triple H is determined to reclaim his throne, while Kurt Angle is dealing with the triple threat of Rey Mysterio and Randy Orton, both men eager to capture the WHC gold. This main event will be rife with tension as the Raw superstars are at a disadvantage in the Handicap Match, and all six men jockey for position for their respected titles.

The five-man main event tag match is not the only momentous action taking place on this huge show. Considered a preview to Wrestlemania, the Street Fight involving Shawn Michaels and Shane McMahon is guaranteed to be bloody and violent, as the McMahon

Family attempt to destroy yet another WWE Superstar, not caring who they step over in their struggle for greatness.

Making a return to WWE, Stone Cold Steve Austin will be welcomed back by the fans as he faces off against JBL in a contest he has plenty of knowledge and experience in - a Beer Drinking Contest! This argument came about after Stone Cold made derogatory comments about JBL, stating that JBL does not deserve to be counted amongst the great wrestlers that have come from Texas. This Texas Showdown should be plenty of fun.

Also making a return is The Cutting Edge, Edge's famous and controversial talk show. On SNME, Edge promises to make a fool of his Wrestlemania opponent Mick Foley, but who will be fool at the end?

If anything you would be the fool to miss this awesome event, Sunday the 9th of April at 2pm on e.tv.
