

Press Release

Scandal! goes international

With the trend of some local celebrity mags opting to use famous international faces on their covers it's no surprise that Nirvana Naheer's (Keren Tahor) newly launched Scandal! is taking the same route, well, at least testing the waters...

And who better to grace the fifth cover of the mag than the woman who is quickly rising through the fame ranks to becoming one of the most photographed women in the world, and appearing on over 300 magazine covers across the globe! With stats like these, which magazine wouldn't want her on their cover?

Caprice will be making her scandalous debut on e.tv's hottest daily drama Scandal on Thursday May 25. Her guest appearances continue on Monday May 29 and Tuesday May 30. During the show Caprice is introduced as a mysterious international celebrity who will be making an announcement about the presenter selection for a fictitious TV show which Stan Nyathi's (Luthuli Dlamini) weekly The Voice has partnered with. She agrees that the lecherous Jay-Jay (Daniel Hadebe) can do an underwear shoot with her for the cover of Scandal! for her new range of underwear. In another case of fiction mixing with reality, the star has a new underwear range that she has just recently launched with a South African department store. To throw a bit of spice in, the recently single Andrew develops a huge crush on her and she signs his range of Caprice underwear.

Quick Facts on Caprice...

- Caprice relocated from Southern California to London 10 years ago and was instantly catapulted into stardom!
