SEE e.TV'S SOCCER ACES IN ACTION

Friday, 16 March at Wynberg Sports Club, Cape Town

In anticipation of the 2010 Soccer World cup in South Africa, e.tv and Penguin films have announced a new weekly drama that will be hitting the screens later this year. Shooting Stars is set in the world of South African soccer and will chart the fortunes of a number of players and their club, as they try to regain their place in the PSL after being relegated to the Super League, in the lead up to the biggest football competition in the world.

Do YOU want to see some real Shooting Stars in action? Now is your chance.

In the midst of a busy shooting schedule, a full length match will be played when e.tv's ace soccer team, the Shooting Stars, take on their archrivals the Black Dragons. There's nothing like watching a soccer match from the sidelines, so come along to Wynberg Sports Club on Friday, 16 March and be a spectator. The match starts at 3pm, but arrive at 2pm to guarantee a seat. Not only will you be entertained by the athleticism of the players, you will also become a part of the process of filming a TV series, and you could even be featured on the series as one of the spectators. 2010, here we come.

Shooting Stars is a dynamic and unflinching exploration of the world of African soccer, covering all aspects of the game. From passion and successes to the darker side of the game with rivalries, shady deals and corruption, Shooting Stars will show it all. To get your first glimpse of all the action, be at Wynberg Sports Club in Cape Town, Friday, 16 March at 2pm.

For a free ticket to the match contact e.tv's call centre on 083 1222.
