

PRESS RELEASE

SHOW RETURNS: The Style Report on the eNews Channel TX: Thursday 12 November at 9PM

After a successful first season earlier this year, The Style Report returns to the eNews Channel on Thursday 12 November 2009; bringing audiences a fresh perspective on stories making news in the world of Style, Art, Beauty and Design.

The second season gives viewers a behind-the-scenes look at all of the season's major fashion weeks, including those in New York, Paris, Cape Town, Johannesburg and London. Other features include, in-depth interviews with some of our country's most talented designers, artists and style makers,

The Style Report is produced and directed by The Showbiz Report's Nicky Greenwall and will be hosted by Lutho Somdyala and Inge Beckmann.

Lutho Somdyala

Lutho Somdyala is currently completing his degree in Film and Media Studies at the University of Cape Town. To date, he has already written and produced a number of productions. In his spare time, he is a model, actor, writer and style enthusiast; and has taken to the runway for several South African designers.

"Lutho is already a huge hit with our audience. He's just the right blend of intelligence and style. We're proud to have him back on our team for the second season in a row," says Greenwall:

Inge Beckmann

Inge Beckmann is best known as the voice of indie group, Lark. She has been described by Art South Africa magazine as "Cape Town's reigning queen of kooky cool."

Greenwall says: "Inge is a welcome addition to The Style Report team. She's a forward-thinking creative person who brings a unique energy to everything she does."

Nicky Greenwall

In 2005, Nicky Greenwall launched The Showbiz Report on e.tv. As eNews' dedicated entertainment journalist, she has reported live from The Academy Awards, The Cannes Film Festival, The Venice Film Festival, London Fashion Week, Nelson Mandela's 46664 concert, his birthday celebrations and several other high profile events in and around South Africa.

She has conducted one-on-one interviews with some of the biggest names in showbiz, including Johnny Depp, Leonardo DiCaprio, Charlize Theron, Angelina Jolie, P Diddy, Sir Anthony Hopkins and Jim Carrey to name but a few.

In 2007, she also wrote and produced the highly acclaimed documentary series Behind The Name, which tracked the rise to fame of some of South Africa's most influential showbiz personalities.
