

Press Release

THE NIGHT OF CHRISTMAS SCANDAL! Thursday December 8

Ah, the politics of dancing...it's the year-end office party at The Voice, and like thousands of these obligatory celebrations around South Africa, there's bound to be too much booze, bad food, out-of-turn talk - and a lot of people making utter fools of themselves. Didn't get the raise or promotion you wanted? Bring it up at the party...preferably in front of your boss. Any long-standing clashes with colleagues - spit-spew it out.

At our weekly paper, it's no different: There are our hosts, editor Stan Nyathi (Luthuli Dlamini), and his ever-unfaithful wife, Thato (Rami Cheune) and 18-year-old son, Mangi (Kagiso Modupe), who suffers from chronic lust-in-my-heart for his father's ex-mistress.

Stan, having just fired his mistress, is confident that his "got-out-of-a-coma-for-Christmas", marketing manager Nirvana (Keren Tahor) is out of office - and his life for good. But wait! Will she, and her rather sexy lawyer, Sibongile (Zukisa Matola) demand public reinstatement from cognac-smooth publisher Vusi (Siyabonga Twala), to be served with the hors d' oeuvres?

So our office party becomes a WWE Smackdown hot spot with Andrew (Ashley Dowds) as the fall guy. We offer stalkers and - dare we say it - 'ho, 'ho, 'ho jealousy enraged face-slaps, obsessions, grand entrances, showdowns, put-downs and exits, mixed with inappropriate drinking, dress, come-ons and primal urges. And if that isn't enough binging, we have Fana (Welile Nzuza) with yet another new career plan - to be DJ of the night.

Yes! Tamia (Renate Stuurman); Vanashree (Leeanda Reddy); Eddie (Sandy Mokwena), Angelina (Genevieve Howard); Tino (Clint Brink); Sam (Candice Derman), Jaco (Dewald Reynecke) and Lulama (Sarah Ngubeni) will all share the office space of shame - if not joyful harmony.

And, of course, if certain other characters ain't misbehavin' there, you can be sure they are, elsewhere...

Surprise! For a festive stocking full of sexual tension, gossip and rumours, our gift to you: Scandal at 7.30pm - Mondays to Thursdays free on e. Merry Christmas!
