The Rough Cut Sunday 30 July at 6.30pm

This Sunday in The Rough Cut: Stereotypes that are perpetuated by the media in our society every single day: 'Nigerians are drug dealers'. 'Illegal immigrants are black'. 'Americans are pro war'. 'Africans are underdeveloped'. 'Black governments are corrupt,' and 'HIV is an African disease.'

The list could go on, and on, and on. This week in the Rough Cut, series producer, Anne-Marie Hanna, takes a look at how the media challenges, reinforces and perpetuates these identities through the stories they tell, the language they use, and the images they depict them with. Real stories. Real people behind them.
