

Press Release

The Showbiz Report Saturday 4 and 11 March at 7.30pm

SHOWBIZ REPORT GOES TO OSCARS...

e.tv is proud to announce that Nicky Greenwall will be travelling to Los Angeles to cover the 78th Annual Academy Awards in March this year. Nicky Greenwall is the creator, producer and host of e.tv's The Showbiz Report (Saturdays at 7.30pm). "This is the most important night in showbiz and I'm proud to be able to bring e.tv viewers a comprehensive view of the event from a South African perspective," she says. The two Oscar shows will be on 4 March and covers the night before the Oscar ceremony and on 11 March, which will cover the aftermath.

According to the website Oscarwatch.com, South Africa has two chances to win big this year. "Charlize Theron may be up for her second Oscar for her performance in the film North Country and the South African made film Tsotsi is said to be a strong contender for the Best Foreign language film category," says Greenwall. During her time in LA Nicky will also be covering The Razzie Awards, which honour Hollywood's worst films of 2005.

As the dedicated arts and entertainment anchor at eNews, Nicky has conducted one-on-one interviews with some of the biggest names in entertainment including Angelina Jolie, Charlize Theron, Keira Knightly, Liam Neeson, Laura Linney, Ashley Judd and Clive Owen, to name a few. Her list of music interviewees include The Black Eyed Peas, Bono, Avril Lavigne, P.Diddy, Usher and Alicia Keyes. She has reported live from Nelson Mandela's 46664 Concert in 2003, his 85th Birthday celebrations and the 2004 Cannes Film Festival.

The Showbiz Report is South Africa's leading entertainment news program with a loyal audience of almost 1 million viewers each week. For more information on The Showbiz Report and e.tv please visit www.nickygreenwall.co.za, www.etv.co.za, or www.quirkyhouse.co.za

Further Information:

Herman Lategan

e.tv Publicity

Tel: (021) 481-4634