

PRESS RELEASE

Time to find the next big thing, with 20something

TX: Sunday 24 February at 11am and 02 March at 1:05pm

Looking for the latest in movies, music and celebrity news? Then look no further than 20something, a show that makes you feel you own the now and are in the know, while adding a bit of oomph to your Sunday TV viewing! 20something is all that and more, so join your hosts Namhla and Kyle for the lowdown every Sunday on e.

TX: 24 February at 11am

Get a front row seat as 20something chats to the four phenomenal singers of the Soweto Opera Quadro.

Then join the show as it navigates Soweto's first mega and up market shopping centre the Maponya Mall...

Last week Bling was introduced, this week the show gets up and running in a showcase of some of the fantastic trends for the summer.

The movie preview for the week is the hilarious comedy "Charlie Bartlett" about a rich kid who becomes a self-appointed psychiatrist to the student body of his new high school, starring Robert Downey Jr.

Then the show plays out with "Into Yami" from Ntokozo.

TX: 02 March at 1.05pm

This week 20something talks with some movers and shakers Neo and Sibusiso who run the successful design and technical execution digital business Krazyboyz Digital.

Iona Minton, 20something's financial expert, is in studio to help viewers on how to budget wisely with a money toolkit.

Our gadget man, Hannes, once again showcases the latest gadgets in market...

The movie preview of the week is the action packed "Death Proof" about two women who are stalked at different times by a scarred stuntman who uses his "death proof" car to execute his murderous plans, starring Kurt Russell, Rosario Dawson and Zoe Bell.

The music video of the week is "Everything Changes" from Changing Face ft Lindsay McGuire.