

Press Release

TRIBUTE TO LEBO MATHOSA PRESS RELEASE Wednesday 13 December at 8pm

e.tv brings you a special tribute documentary on the short-lived life of Lebo Mathosa, on Wednesday 13 December at 8pm. The 29-year-old musician was killed in the early hours of Monday 23 October 2006 on the N3 highway in East Rand, Johannesburg.

The late Brenda Fassie was her mentor and gave her the inspiration she needed to pursue a career in the music industry. She started with the group Twinz, but shot to fame with Boom Shaka. After six years with the band, Lebo released her first solo album, Dream.

And with Dream, Lebo won best dance album and best dance single for the song Intro. With the death of her heroine, Brenda Fassie, Lebo was unofficially appointed as her heir. And in death, like Brenda, Lebo the lioness lives on.
