

PRESS RELEASE

Free-to-air channel e.tv is launching two WWE wrestling shows in January 2009.

WWE: Bottom Line, a one-hour series, starts on Monday 19 January at 8pm. Host Jack Korpela recaps events taking place on WWE: RAW.

From Tuesday 20 January at 8pm, WWE: Afterburn joins the e.tv WWE line-up. Josh Matthews recaps events taking place on Smackdown!

Bronwyn Keene-Young, e.tv's chief operating officer says, "WWE Smackdown!, ECW and Raw have proved to be extremely popular shows. Bottom Line and Afterburn will give WWE viewers the opportunity to get more of what they enjoy."

Time changes to e.tv's Tuesday line-up from 20 January 2009 include:

- Forgive and Forget moves to the 9PM time slot
- 3rd Degree moves to the 9.30PM time slot.

America's Next Top Model fans will get a double dose of this popular reality show. They are going to be treated to a double bill on Tuesday 16 December, Tuesday 6 January and culminating in a double bill season finale on Tuesday 13 January.

Then there is also a blast from the past. Backstage, Season one returns from Monday 5 January. It will be screened weekdays at 4.40pm.

The cult comedy series, Curb Your Enthusiasm, starts on Monday 5 January as a double bill from 9pm.
