Ziggy and Lu Tjooning You Big Prizes!

Season Three of Tjooning In, Vulindlela College's in house TV show, is now co-hosted by Ziggy and Lu in the new stand-alone slot that airs directly after the Wednesday episode of Backstage.

Film student Lu (Nokuthula Ledwaba) of the gum-smacking, hardcore attitude, is there to add some female perspective – and balance – to Ziggy's (Charl Timotheus) topical debates. Remember that Ziggy also has his weekly up close and personal Wednesday interviews with the various guests who are featured on Backstage every Monday (it's a slice of life for the students with visitors ranging from a belly dancer, a life management coach and performers like Jamali).

Then there's the Tjooning In Competition, designed to offer viewers a chance to interact via cell phone, and at the same time, win big. To enter you need to SMS two passwords during the Tjooning In show. The first password is supplied by Ziggy, at any time, during Tuesday's episode of Backstage. This can be a single word such as "Kwaito". The second password is provided during the Tjooning In show – now broadcast immediately after Wednesday's episode of Backstage. This can also be a single word such as "Star". Once you have both passwords SMS the word TJOON followed by password one and password two (in this case you will have TJOON + KWAITO + STAR) to the number flashed on screen during the show. The weekly winner's names will be announced immediately after Thursday's episode of Backstage.

And get this! The once-off sms entry qualifies the viewer to win not just once, but three times. Every week a winner is selected from the Lucky Draw. The prize is a Telefunken Home Theatre System valued at R1299. Then there is the monthly draw of the four weekly winners. That particular winner receives the prize of a Telefunken Home Theatre System, PLUS a 74cm flat screen television set that is worth R4500. Finally, there is the Grand Prize Draw of the monthly winners – that event will be held on September 20. The prize: a super cool Conti 200cc Quad Bike worth R15 000.

We're tjooning you it's serious!
