

PRESS RELEASE

Issued 2 June 2005

THE HEART IS A LONELY HUNTER: CHEATERS: THURSDAY 16 JUNE AT 10.15PM

As all Cheaters' participants will tell you - nothing is wilder and more empowering than catching a lover cheating. It can also be soul-destroying, heart-wrenching and downright shocking. The injured party's feelings of rejection, low-self-esteem and self-loathing that often follow are horrible. Hopefully, in the end, it encourages the renewal of fidelity.

In this episode: Sylvia McKenzie, married before with a child, became re-acquainted with her current husband at their 15-year high school reunion. She began noticing a pattern in the suspect's behaviour and called Cheaters for assistance. Cheaters' detectives gathered surveillance footage for several weeks and discovered his affair.

Cheaters' detectives brought their findings to Sylvia. After viewing footage of the surveillance, Sylvia decided to confront her husband. Sylvia's daughter also attended the confrontation to offer moral support to her mother. Cheaters' detectives found the suspect at a local hotel with his companion. Neither the suspect nor his companion would speak to the distraught Sylvia or the Cheaters' crew. Defeated, Sylvia left the confrontation scene with her daughter knowing the truth about her husband and their marriage.

Corbin Perkins and Kim Harber met and began dating immediately. Shortly after their relationship began, Corbin suspected Kim's feelings were changing. Corbin came to Cheaters for help. Cheaters' detectives conducted surveillance on Kim for several days and caught her with the same man on each occasion.

Corbin's suspicions were correct. Kim was seeing her ex-boyfriend. After viewing the surveillance footage, Corbin was ready to confront Kim. Cheaters' investigators had followed Kim and her ex-boyfriend to a local nightclub. Cheaters' crew and Corbin entered the nightclub and surprised Kim and her companion. Kim exited the nightclub with her companion. Corbin only asked why she hadn't been honest. Kim could not offer any reasons for her sly behaviour and left the confrontation scene with her companion.

Ends

Herman Lategan
e.tv Publicity Writer
Tel: (021) 481-4634