E.NEWS SPECIAL: WEDNESDAY 20 DECEMBER @ 8PM

REFLECTIONS ON THE TOP NEWS STORIES OF 2006

This year brought a spate of riveting news stories from around the globe - and every night e.news offered you independent and fearless bulletins.

There were many highlights and on Wednesday night at 8pm, the e.news team will reflect on some of the top stories over the last 12 months.

Items that will be featured include the Jacob Zuma trials and all the brouhaha around one of the most dramatic court cases in the history of this country.

The Schabir Shaik appeal is highlighted, as well as Tony Yengeni's spectacular farewell off to prison.

Same-sex marriages will fall under the spotlight, as it polarized many people in our conservative society.

Then there was the scandalous escape from C-Max Prison by Ananias Mathe, a Mozambican national, who is South Africa's most feared criminal.

On the international front Saddam Hussein's death sentence will feature and the Democrats' victory in the US mid-term elections.
