

PERSVERKLARING

eNews verwelkom nuwe Afrikaanse nuusafdeling

1 Julie 2010

eNews het vandag hulle nuwe Afrikaanse nuusafdeling verwelkom. Die Afrikaanse nuusspan sal 'n Afrikaanse nuusdiens aan kykNET verskaf. Dit is 'n verlenging van die 'e' handelsmerk en sal eNuus genoem word.

eNuus val onder die bestuur en redaksionele beheer van eNews, en sal gelei word deur Andries Cornelissen wat aangestel is as nuusredakteur. Veteraan joernalis Freek Robinson sal die hoofanker wees van die eNuus-bulletin. Die sterk eNuus span bestaan uit LiMari Louw, Genee Heyl en Anina Peens. Sportnuus sal deur Jean-Paul Keyter en Francois Nolte hanteer word.

Patrick Conroy, Groephoof: eNews afdeling, sê die volgende: "Die span sal begin met opleiding in die eNews werksstelsel en hulle kollegas beter leer ken by eNews Prime Time, die eNews Channel en eNews Africa wat die ander afdelings van die nuusbesigheid vorm."

Die loodsdatum moet nog bevestig word. Vir eers fokus die span op opleiding en voorbereiding.

-EINDE-

PRESS RELEASE

eNews welcomes its new Afrikaans news division

1 July 2010

eNews today welcomed the arrival of its new Afrikaans news division. The Afrikaans news team will provide a news service to kykNET and is an extension of the 'e' brand and will be called eNuus.

eNuus falls under the management and editorial control of eNews, and will be led by Andries Cornelissen who has been appointed news editor. Veteran journalist Freek Robinson will be the main anchor of the eNuus bulletin. The strong eNuus team includes LiMari Louw, Genee Heyl, Anina Peens. Sports news will be handled by Jean-Paul Keyter and Francois Nolte.

Patrick Conroy, Group Head: eNews Division says, "The team will begin training on the eNews operating systems and get to know their colleagues on eNews Prime Time, the eNews Channel and eNews Africa which form the other divisions of the news company."

The launch date of the service is still to be confirmed. For now the focus will be on training and rehearsals.

-ENDS-