Firstly this week we take an in depth look at the players we feel should be in the Bafana Bafana side for the World Cup qualifier against the Cape Verde Islands. We discuss the tactics we feel they should be implementing and we look down the road at who we will be facing next.

We have a roundup of the European scene. Where we look at the Spanish La Liga highlights and discuss who we think will be leaving who and who will be joining who in the next few months. We also discuss how or whether Liverpool will be able to compete in next years Champions League as reigning champions.

And finally we look back on the English tour of the USA. From the star Beckham is to the ace-marksmen Michael Owen has become. We discuss in depth what Sven Goran Eriksson's tour to the USA has meant to his plans for next years World Cup.

And finally we look at the Bafana Bafana squad that will be taking on Cape Verde in a World Cup qualifier, who has been left out? Who has been included and how we think they should be playing.
