

PRESS RELEASE ON THE (KIDNAPPING) CASE!

Wednesday September 5 at 6.30pm

Veteran actor Graham Clarke plays Superintendent Neels Viljoen, the man who heads the investigation into the kidnapping of Sam Sedibeng (Wandile Molebatsi), the wild child of the gospel music industry.

The Redemption Records artist is notorious for making front-page news due to his very public drink, drug, and women problems. He's alienated a lot of people.

The ransom demand, made by an unknown abductor, is R100 000. Will Viljoen, and his sidekick Mohai (Simo Magwaza), pressured by time, a list of extremely uncooperative suspects and massive media frenzy manage to track their man?

Join the search for Sam: Rhythm City, on e, from Wednesday September 5.
