Snake: Madam & Eve: Monday 16 May @ 8.30pm

With its characteristic warmth and humour, Madam & Eve is more than anything else, a comedy of hope. Now in its fourth successful season, the series' unique formula has brought attention and praise from around the world. The cartoon strip has never been afraid to examine the fears, prejudices and foibles of white and black South Africans alike.

In this episode: Madam reluctantly agrees to look after Eric's (Madam's vagabond son, played by Phillip Black) pet garden snake, which actually turns out to be a python. Meanwhile the new neighbour's dog is keeping everyone awake with its incessant yapping.

This episode also features Dianne Wilson, who is one of the country's leading stage actresses.

The rest of the show stars Tina Jaxa (Eve Sisulu), Val Donald Bell (Gwen Anderson, or Madam), Patricia Sanders (Edith Anderson, or mother), Joe Mafela (Sol) and Jennifer Steyn (Marge).
