20SOMETHING EMBRACES HERITAGE THIS MONTH Sunday, 04 September @ 1.30pm

Entertainment guides, cultural buffs, heritage enthusiasts ...choose one to your liking and the description will fit Namhla Ndlovu and Khethiwe Kunene who are always at the helm of what's happening in and around Mzansi on 20something, every Sunday - free on e.

Fast becoming a force to be reckoned with in the Afro-Pop genre, Ntando is in studio to chat about heritage, music and his latest album release, which makes a lot of references to his heritage and being a South African in general.

Over history people have achieved some amazing things, whether it be landing on the moon, climbing Mount Everest, or managing to fly. In most instances, able-bodied people have mainly accomplished these, this week we chat to a young boy on crutches named Cameron who has managed to climb Mount Kilimanjaro.

The movie preview of the week is "The Dukes of Hazzard", starring Johnny Knoxville, Seann William Scott, Jessica Simpson, Burt Reynolds and Willie Nelson. The film follows the adventures of the Duke cousins Bo (Seann William Scott) and Luke (Johnny Knoxville), who, with the help of their eye-catching cousin Daisy (Jessica Simpson) and moonshine-running uncle Jesse (Willie Nelson), try and save the family farm from being destroyed by Hazzard County's corrupt commissioner Boss Hogg (Burt Reynolds).

The music video of the week comes from the queen of all that is stylish and funky, Ms Gwen Stefani with 'Hollaback Girl'.
